

Model Questions for M Ed. Viva

Prepared by Dr. T. Mohamed Salim

Assistant professor, Farook Training College, Calicut, drsalimt@gmail.com

Please don't misuse the materials

1. introduce yourself
2. State your problem
3. Define the key terms if any
4. Why you select this problem or significance of your problem?
5. What are the variables of your study (if any)?
6. List the major objectives of your study
7. What are the hypotheses of your study?
8. What do you mean by survey/ experimental method?
9. What about the tool used in your study. Which are they?
10. What are the steps of your tool construction?
11. How did you standardise your tool?
13. What about the reliability of your tool? How did you find it?
14. What statistical method did you use in this study? What is your rationale for the selection of that method?
15. What was your data collection procedure?
16. How did you select your sample? What was the size? What technique you used.
17. What are the major findings of your study?
18. Give the educational implication of your study?
19. What are your suggestions for further research?
20. Can you say 2 or 3 references that you have used in this study?